All Welcome

St Paul's School

St Paul's School urgently needs more Catholic governors. Have you considered volunteering? The Board of Governors supports and challenges the school to provide an excellent Catholic education for all pupils. We meet six times per year (each half term), training is provided and no prior experience is needed other than enthusiasm! We would welcome any parishioners from Holy Trinity as well as other parishes to join us. If you can help, please speak with Fr Appollos or Shona Bray, or email sbray@stpaulsplymouth.com. Please pray for more Catholic Governors for St Paul's.

Parking at Holy Family

Last Sunday there was a complaint made by a neighbour that their driveway was blocked by a car—this may have nothing to do with the Church. So, just a polite reminder please, we all need to be considerate towards our neighbours along with other road users and ensure that whenever we attend church, vehicles are not parked in a manner that causes any obstructions or indeed blocks local residents from having free access to their properties.

Pope's Intentions for July—For the Pastoral Care of the Sick

Let us pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick grant the Lord's strength to those who receive it and to their loved ones, and that it may become for everyone an ever more visible sign of compassion and hope.

Prayer for 4th World Day for Grandparents & the Elderly 28 July 2024

Lord, faithful God,
You who created us in Your image,
You who never leaves us alone and who accompanies us through every season of life,
Do not abandon us, take care of us,
And grant us, once again,
The ability to discover ourselves
and recognise that we are Your children.
Renew our hearts with your Word
And do not allow anyone to be cast aside.
May your Spirit of love fill us
with Your tenderness
And teach us to say: "I will not abandon you!"
To those we meet on our journey.
With the help of your beloved Son,
may we not lose the taste for fraternity
And may we not conform to the sadness of loneliness.
Help us to look to the future with renewed hope,
And make the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly
A day without loneliness, and a day abundant with the first-fruits of Your peace.

Amen.

World Day Against Trafficking in Persons - 30th July

The 30th July is the annual World Day Against Trafficking in Persons, which is an event to raise awareness and increase prevention of people trafficking and modern day slavery.

The theme this year is, 'Leave no child behind in the fight against human trafficking'. One in three victims of trafficking are children, with girls being disproportionately affected. Children are also twice as likely to be subjected to violence during trafficking than adults. Children will experience various forms of trafficking including forced labour, criminality or begging, online and sexual abuse and exploitation, and being trafficked for illegal adoption.

Caritas Diocese of Plymouth runs events and training on modern slavery and labour abuse. If you would like an event in your parish, please contact the Caritas Refugee and Migration Lead - Alexandra.Miranda@prcdtr.org.uk. We have also created a poster for parishes and schools to raise awareness of the signs of modern slavery. You can download a copy here <https://www.plymouth-diocese.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2024/05/Signs-of-Modern-Slavery-poster-1.png> If you would like support, or you are concerned about someone else, please contact: The Safeguarding Office – Please call us on 01364 645430 between Monday to Friday, from 9am to 4:30pm.

Weekend Mass

Psalm Response “You open wide your hand, O Lord, and grant our desires.”

Gospel acclamation “Alleluia, alleluia! Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life: you have the message of eternal life. Alleluia!”

Entrance Hymn Marty Haugen

Let us build a house where love can dwell
and all can safely live,
a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.

Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions,

*All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.*

2. Let us build a house where prophets speak,
and words are strong and true,
where all God’s children dare to seek to dream God’s reign anew.

Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God’s grace;
here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:

3. Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat:
a banquet hall on holy ground
where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God through Jesus is revealed in time and space;
as we share in Christ the feast that frees us:

Preparation of the Gifts R Mant (1776-1848),

1. God, my King, your might confessing, ever will I bless your Name;
day by day your throne addressing,
still will I thy praise proclaim.

2. Highest praise to God is fitting;
who his majesty can reach?
Age to age his works transmitting,
age to age his power shall teach.

Preparation of the Gifts Cont.

3. They shall talk of all your glory,
on your might and greatness dwell,
speak of your dread acts the story,
and your deeds of wonder tell.
4. Nor shall fail from mem'ry's treasure works by love and mercy wrought, works of love surpassing measure,
works of mercy passing thought.
5. Full of kindness and compassion,
slow to anger, vast in love,
God is good to all creation;
all his works his goodness prove.
6. All your works, O Lord, shall bless you;
you alone your saints adore:
King supreme shall they confess you,
and proclaim your sovereign power.

Communion Hymn Michael Herry

1. When Jesus came to town, people talked for miles around.
They hadn't seen the life of this for ages.
Then Mum packed a luncheon bag,
so behind him I could tag,
and maybe get a job with fancy wages.
But I wasn't with him long,
when I heard another song;
his call to use my gifts in serving others.
So I decided then and there to follow him to God knows where,
and may be light a candle in the darkness.

*This table of life all gather round
Our simple gifts can change to things profound.
Though there's not much in my bag,
what I've got Lord, you can have,
for you to multiply to make go round.*

2. So I joined his rag-tag band and we sang throughout the land
a song about God's love
for all and sundry.
But life's not just sing-a-long;
there was hard work to be done;
to clothe and heal the sick
and feed the hungry.

Then one day as things turned out,
when the crowds were round about,
I offered him my barley loaves and fishes.
And after giving out the lunch,
Oh we were a happy bunch,
'Cause at picnics no one has to do the dishes.

3. So may we a blessing be that all one day be free,
by sharing all we have and serving others.
Here's the master's wise advice,
if you're after paradise,
Think of others first,
your sisters and your brothers.
This sign that Jesus gave left the people all dismayed.
They wanted him their king
and that's no wonder!
But he left them high and dry;
he had other fish to fry,
To have us set our hearts on life beyonder!

Recessional Hymn Timothy Dudley-Smith—(Magnificat)

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord!
Unnumbered blessings give my spirit voice;
tender to me the promise of his word;
in God my Saviour shall my heart rejoice.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his name!
Make known his might,
the deeds his arm has done;
his mercy sure, from age to age the same;
his holy name, the Lord, the Mighty One.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his might!
Powers and dominions lay their glory by;
Proud hearts and stubborn wills
are put to flight;
the hungry fed, the humble lifted high.

Tell out, my soul, the glories of his Word!
Firm is his promise, and his mercy sure.
Tell out my soul, the greatness of the Lord
to children's children and forevermore!
